Non Sequitur, NV Yakima Valley 50% Mourvèdre, 30% Syrah, 20% Cinsault 250 cases produced	A delightful “every day drinker,” this is an expressive and bold red blend with lots of fruit and nice aromatics. One of our most popular wines. Priced to enjoy now.
Counoise 2010 Ciel du Cheval Vineyard 100% Counoise Red Mountain ONLY 98 cases produced EXCLUSIVE!	Due to the popularity of Counoise with our wine club and you, our devoted supporters, this wine will be available only from the Winery. You won’t see it in shops or on restaurant lists. The wine is just amazing – super-bright; red fruit and pepper; an extended, clean finish. And this vintage is likely to be one of the longest-cellarling wines we’ve made. Should drink well until 2020-25, or longer.
Grenache 2011 Yakima Valley 89% Grenache, 5% Mourvèdre, 4% Syrah, 2% Counoise 120 cases produced	Not yet reviewed; from previous vintage: “Big and juicy, this full throttle Grenache screams across the palate with a load of spicy cherry, brambly berry, and bourbon-soaked plum flavors. Tannins are toasty and the finish leaves a pleasingly bitter coffee impression.” — Paul Gregutt
Sirocco 2009 Yakima Valley 45% Grenache, 27%, Mourvèdre, 19% Syrah 9% Counoise 388 cases produced	90 Points, Wine Enthusiast. A blend of Grenache, Mourvèdre, Syrah and Counoise, this wine brings an intriguing assortment of red and blue jammy fruit, herbs, cranberry and peppery spices. Reflective of the warm vintage it comes from, it’s ripe, full bodied and in a sweet spot.” — Sean Sullivan
Syrah, Yakima Valley 2010 Yakima Valley 380 cases produced	Not yet reviewed; from previous vintage: 91 Points, Wine Enthusiast – Editor’s Choice “A full six years old, this wine is in a sweet spot, with aromas of fresh and dried blue and red fruit. It’s rich in style with plump, luscious fruit flavors. It still has time but it’s hard to imagine it could get much better. Drink now.” — Sean Sullivan 18.5/20 points – Rand Sealey, Review of Washington Wines
Mourvèdre 2010 Yakima Valley 90% Mourvèdre, 6% Grenache, 3% Syrah, 1% Counoise 201 cases produced	90 Pts Wine Enthusiast “The blend includes a hefty 22% Syrah, but the varietal stamp of the Mourvèdre shines through. Red plum, truffle and smoke are joined by a streak of vanilla. It’s attention-getting and distinctive, dense and velvety. A wine to pair with wild game or smoked meats.” — Paul Gregutt 18.5/20 points — Rand Sealey, Review of Washington Wines
Cuvée Orleans Syrah 2009 Yakima Valley 94% Syrah, 6% Viognier 221 cases produced	92 pts Wine Enthusiast “The six years this wine has had to stretch its legs have been well spent. It shows appealing aromas of chocolate along with dried and fresh dark fruit that lead to rich, ripe flavors. It’s in full bloom and ready to drink.” — Sean Sullivan
Boushey Vineyard Syrah 2010 Yakima Valley 150 cases produced	Not yet reviewed; from previous vintage: 91 pts Wine Enthusiast “Already six years old, this is in full bloom, offering aromas of jammy red and black fruit sprinkled with cocoa and iron. Flavors show purity and richness, with barrel influences dialed back.” — Sean Sullivan 19/20 points. “ — Rand Sealey, Review of Washington Wines
Amerique Syrah 2008 Yakima Valley 81% Syrah, 18% Mourvèdre, 1% Grenache 267 cases produced	91 pts Wine Enthusiast “This is an elegant Syrah, blended with 18% Mourvèdre and topped with a splash of Grenache. Good phenolic ripeness along with substantial sugars lead into flavors that have melded nicely. Berry, truffle, chocolate, leather, pepper and coffee are all in the mix, and the mid-palate is delicious.” — PG 18.5+/20 points – Rand Sealey , Review of Washington Wines
