2009 Grenache Blanc 100% Grenache Blanc Very Limited 123 cases produced	Boushey Vineyard Yakima Valley	Silver Medal, Seattle Wine Awards “Dick Boushey was the first to plant [it] in Washington State, and this is a fine rendition. Pale gold colored, it imparts aromas of Bosc pear and Crenshaw melon, with scents of lilac, pear blossoms and anise... ..with undertones of minerals, grape skin, orange peel and melon rind, followed by a crisp, juicy passion fruit and grapefruit imbued finish.” 18.5/20 points — Rand Sealey, Rev. of Wa. Wines
2009 Marsanne 100% Marsanne 125 cases produced	Boushey Vineyard Yakima Valley	Silver Medal, Seattle Wine Awards 91 pts Wine Enthusiast “Dry and delicate with mixed fresh herbs, melon, green berry, spice and rock – lots of rock. It shows surprising length and develops nicely in the throat, seeming to add flesh as you taste.” — Paul Gregutt
2009 Roussanne 75% Roussanne, 25% Grenache Blanc Limited 95 cases produced	Boushey Vineyard Yakima Valley	90 pts., Wine Enthusiast “The first Boushey vineyard Roussanne from McCrea includes a 25% portion of Grenache Blanc. The wine is sharp and high-toned, with a bit of burn to the finish. The fruit flavors dance around the fringes of tropical, with a softer melon core. Though barrel fermented in neutral oak, some tasty, toasty flavors abound.” — PG
2009 Viognier 76% Viognier, 12% Grenache Blanc, 12% Marsanne 183 cases produced	Yakima Valley	Silver Medal, Seattle Wine Awards 91 pts Wine Enthusiast – Editor’s Choice “... Rich and satisfying, it brings the buttery density of a ripe Chardonnay, but mixes the fruits for more drama —cantaloupe, apricot, banana, and a bit of papaya. A total yum-fest.” — Paul Gregutt
2009 Sirocco Blanc 42% Grenache Blanc, 41% Marsanne 10% Picpoul, 7% Roussanne 389 cases produced	Boushey Vineyard Yakima Valley	92 pts Wine Enthusiast - Paul Gregutt, Top 10 Wines of the Month (Feb '11). “I can't think of anyone in the Northwest doing a more complex, rich and dense blend of these Rhone varieties. Stone and tropical fruit flavors are wrapped in layers of caramel, nougat, marshmallow and spice. Yummy, with plenty of years of life ahead.”
2008 Cunoise, 20% Syrah 184 cases produced	Ciel du Cheval Vineyard Red Mountain	“It displays exotic aromas of wild raspberry, mulberry, oriental perfumes (jasmine, sandalwood) and violets... with a backdrop of licorice, cocoa, roasted berries, Red Mountain minerals and touches of crème brulee and orange peel. The finish is effortless, accented by a dusting of coriander and nutmeg on the ripe tannin finish. 19/20 points.” — Rand Sealey, Review of Washington Wines
2008 Grenache 81% Grenache, 7% Syrah, 5% Cunoise, 5% Cinsault, 2% Mourvèdre 349 cases produced	Yakima Valley	91 pts Wine Enthusiast “Big and juicy, this full throttle Grenache screams across the palate with a load of spicy cherry, brambly berry, and bourbon-soaked plum flavors. Tannins are toasty and the finish leaves a pleasingly bitter coffee impression.” — Paul Gregutt
2008 Syrah 100% Syrah 454 cases produced	Yakima Valley	Gold Medal – Seattle Wine Awards “Pure Syrah, the value offering from McCrea Cellars, with fruit sourced from Ciel du Cheval, Boushey and the up-and-coming Elephant Mountain and Sugarloaf vineyards. There is a lot of fruit here – a mix of berries, cherries, chocolate-covered raisins and prunes. The wine is smooth and supple, beautifully integrated and showing some pleasing toast and chocolate notes.” — Paul Gregutt
2008 Mourvèdre 20% Syrah, 4% Grenache 296 cases produced	Yakima Valley	Double Gold Medal – Seattle Wine Awards Not yet reviewed. from '07: 90 pts Wine Enthusiast “[This] is a blend of fruit from opposite ends of the Yakima Valley AVA. Velvety and loaded with red fruits, this appealing wine also carries a hint of smoke & non-funky leather.” — Paul Gregutt
2006 Syrah, Cuvée Orleans 94% Syrah, 6% Viognier New Release 359 cases produced	Yakima Valley	91 pts Wine Enthusiast “... McCrea’s Boushey/Ciel blend is powerful, but approachable. The black and blue fruit flavors are pure and spiced with something almost minty; the body of the wine is textural and veined with rock, lead pencil and coffee. This wine has the muscle and concentration to go another decade in the cellar.” — Paul G.
2006 Syrah, Boushey Grande Côte Vineyard 100% Syrah 373 cases produced	Yakima Valley	94 pts Wine Enthusiast - Paul Gregutt, Top 10 Wines of the Month (Feb '11). “Here again is a vineyard/ grape/winemaker match that shows the best of all three. Broad, toasty, full-bodied and fully expressive, this wine has a long life ahead. Berries, cherries, chocolate, coffee, mocha, tobacco, fungus, graphite... the flavors never stop coming at you.”
2007 Syrah, Amérique 88% Syrah, 12% Mourvèdre 189 cases produced	Yakima Valley	92 pts Wine Enthusiast: “... this Syrah offers an enticing nose of raspberry, huckleberry and wild currant with scents of incense, lavender and violets. The red fruit confit flavors are thick and expansive, yet steer a focused course on the back with deep fruits that are accented by bittersweet chocolate, licorice, vanilla bean and mocha. The finish is marked by ripe tannins and notes of pomegranate juice, orange peel and spices. 19/20 points.” — Rand Sealey, Review of Washington Wines
NV Non Sequitur 37% Syrah, 31% Mourvèdre, 25% Cinsault, 7% Grenache 206 cases produced	Washington State	Not yet reviewed. This version of our perennially popular non sequitur changes it up with an emphasis on Syrah, Mourvèdre and Cinsault -- the bigger, bolder varieties of the Rhône. Deep, dense, inky-purple hues lead to hints of pepper, peppermint and black cherry on the nose. Moderate tannins allow the red and plum fruits to come to the fore. A perfect wine for ribs or burgers, it finishes with a hint of blackstrap molasses, licorice overtones, and the tantalizing bite of bittersweet chocolate.
